This notification is being sent by e-mail only to the Duty Officer network, in relation to the Planned Truck Demonstration.

The EOC has been made aware that some City Services are entering the red zone for non-essential work and without Police support. This is a safety concern and should not be occurring. Staff should only be working within the perimeter when necessary to do so, and should be working with the EOC to coordinate Police support. Please ensure staff within your respective service area are made aware of this safety message.

The most current map outlining the red zone is attached for reference.

Thank you.
